

Kentucky Mine Blast Kills 6, Injures 8

Wheatcroft, Ky., Nov. 30.— (U.P.)—Six miners were killed today and eight others suffered minor injuries as accumulated dust caused an explosion in the West Kentucky Coal Company's No. 10 mine located between Wheatcroft and Clay, Ky.

The explosion occurred about 8
a.m. in the 13th entry to the mine
on a 300-foot level of Slope mine,
one and a half miles from the main entrance.

1942 West Kentucky No 10 Mine explosion
NEWS

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Aug 17, 2025