

3 Trapped Birmingham Coal Miners Rescued

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 29. (U.P.) — Trapped in the Number 2 mine of the Boothton Coal Mining Company since Saturday, three coal miners were rescued unharmed early Monday morning, it was revealed here today by D. A. Thomas, company president. The trio, Lewis Lawley, Ellis Boothe and Leslie Patton were entombed 8,000 feet from the mine entrance when a rock wall on which rescue squads who reached them Sunday afternoon passed food through holes in the barrier.
