

Coal Explosion Victims Still Critical

Tribune Intermountain Wire

KENILWORTH, Carbon County —Five miners, victims of the Independent Coal and Coke Co. Kenilworth mine explosion which has claimed six lives, were still hospitalized and in critical condition Saturday.

These men, who have been given blood plasma to hasten recovery, are Richard Sarrimond, general foreman; Arthur Lermusiaux, Nick Markakis, George Archibque and Felipe Armizo.

The six miners who are dead are David Bennett, Arthur William Smith, Iven Jensen, Gilmer Nielsen, Clem Hawks and Ivan Russell Jackson.

David William Bennett, 27, who died in Price hospital Friday at 8:35 p. m., was born Feb. 24, 1918, in Colorado Springs, Colo., a son of Jerry Samuels and Mary Howells Bennett.

Survivors include his parents, Colorado Springs, and his widow, Mrs. Rita Kathleen Bennett, Kenilworth.

The body will be taken to Colorado Springs for burial.
