

<h2>Two Youths Trapped In Coal Mine Rescued</h2>	were unharmed by their ordeal. They were taken to a Winfield hospital for rest and observation.	deep inside the mine when the cave-in trapped them.
HAMILTON, Ala. (UPI)— Rescuers yesterday removed two brothers from a coal mine where they had been trapped deep in a cave since Monday night.	Officials said rescuers bypassed a rock and tunneled through coal to reach the trapped men.	NOW YOU KNOW
The men, Bobby Gene Johnson, 23, and Lewis Ray Johnson, 20,	A rock slide about 10 p.m. Monday pinned the brothers more than 2,000 feet in the Box mine, located in Marion County in north-west Alabama.	By United Press International The bloodiest engagement in recorded history was the first battle of the Somme in World War I with over 1.25 million casualties — 614,105 British and French and about 650,000 Germans, according to the Guinness Book of Records.
Officials said the men, both of Carbon Hill, were removing rock

1963 Two miners rescued from AL Box mine cavein

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Thu, May 6, 2021