

Mine shaft rescue

TWENTYNINE PALMS — A 20-year-old Marine who fell into a 40-foot deep desert mine shaft was rescued early Sunday by sheriff's deputies, authorities said. The deputies from a San Bernardino County search and rescue team hoisted Andrew Poll from the bottom of the shaft at about 12:15 a.m. Poll, stationed at Twentynine Palms, suffered only scratches in the fall and did not require medical treatment.

1987 Andrew Poll rescued from mine shaft fall

Clipped By:

usmra_rob

Fri, Oct 8, 2021