
A Slate Picker Killed.

WILKESBARRE, October 1.—Joseph Tu-bois, a slate picker, aged 16 years, met with a horrible death at No. 4 breaker to-day. While playing with a number of companions he accidentally fell into a revolving coal screen and before he could be rescued his body was ground into a shapeless mass.

Altoona Tribune, October 2, 1895