

Found a Lost Miner.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 14.—Terence O'Brien, 70 years of age, a foreman in the Gaylor shaft at Plymouth, has been found by a searching party. He was lost in the mine for fifty-two hours, during which time he was without food. O'Brien's light went out while he was working on Sunday and in some manner he wandered off in an old heading. It is feared that he will go crazy from the terrible strain upon his mind.
