

---

WOMEN KILLED IN MINE.

---

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., June 27.—While making a descent into a mine at Dante, Va., last Saturday evening, Mrs. Cartright, wife of Foreman Carttright, and a visiting lady friend were killed, the former instantly, while the latter died Sunday morning. The party was making a descent into the mine and lost control of the car with the above said result. Two children of Mr. Cartright, who were in the car were uninjured. Mr. Cartright's jaw was broken, and he was otherwise badly injured in the accident.

---

Asheville Citizen Times
June 28, 1912