

TWO ENTOMBED MINERS RESCUED

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 16.—Peter Sufjack and Stanley Falosky, two of the four miners entombed for twenty-four hours in the Coalbrook Mine of the Hudson Coal Company at Carbon-dale were rescued alive at noon today. William Morcum and Dominick Alving, the other two miners were rescued alive earlier in the day.

Coalbrook mine cave-in

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Sun, Dec 27, 2020