

Eighteen Miners Rescued From Kentucky Mine

HARLAN, Ky., July 1 —(U.P.)—The 18 miners who were trapped in a mine shaft near Harlan, Kentucky for almost 17 hours have been rescued. The miners were brought to the surface by rescue squads who descended into the mine after the miners had been trapped by an underground fire.

Eighteen miners rescue from fire in KY

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Wed, Dec 30, 2020

Harlan Miners Rescued
(Associated Press)
Harlan, Ky., July 2.—Rescue crews Saturday afternoon brought 18 miners, shaken but alive, to the surface from a mine shaft of the Ridgeway Darby Coal company, 15 miles east of Harlan, where they had been trapped for nearly 17 hours by a fire of undetermined origin.

Eighteen_miners_rescue_from_fire_in_KY

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Wed, Dec 30, 2020