

Lola C. Smith

COEBURN, Va. — Lola Clark Smith, 58, died Wednesday at St. Mary's Hospital, Norton, Va.

She was a member of the Pippin Chapel Church, Caney Ridge section of Coeburn.

Survivors include: her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman L. Clark, Coeburn; one daughter, Miss Betty Smith, Coeburn; five sisters, Miss Eva Clark, Miss Shirley Clark, Mrs. Marie Collins and Mrs. Mell Yeary, all of Coeburn, and Mrs. Betty Jean Hughes, Big Stone Gap; three brothers, Harley Clark and Howard Clark, both of Coeburn, and Charles Clark, Wise.

Estes Funeral Home is in charge.

Randall Wells

ST. CHARLES — Randall Wells, 27, died Thursday in an accident at P & P Coal Co., St. Charles.

He was a lifelong resident of St. Charles, a member of the St. Charles First Baptist Church and a member of the United Mine Workers of America, Local Union No. 1762.

Survivors include his wife, Lou Shuler Wells, of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wells, St. Charles; three sons, Randy Wells, Keith Wells and Michael Wells, of the home; two brothers, Bobby Wells and Greg Wells both of St. Charles; and one sister, Teresa Cole, Dryden, Va.

Province Funeral Home is in charge.

Harold Johnson

ST. CHARLES — Harold Johnson, 33, died Thursday in an accident at P & P Coal Co., St. Charles.

He was a lifelong resident of St. Charles and a member of the United Mine Workers of America, Local Union No. 1762.

Survivors include three stepsons, Danny Troxal, Martinsville, Ind., David Troxal and Keith Troxal, both of St. Charles; three step-daughters, Joyce Troxal, Martinsville, Ind., Peggy Johnson, St. Charles, and Debbie Troxal, Pennington Gap; four brothers, Glen Johnson, St. Charles, David Johnson, Churchroad, Va., Bob Johnson, Russell Springs, Ky., and George Johnson, United States Army, Korea; one sister, Anita Hale, St. Charles; and five step-grandchildren.

Province Funeral Home is in charge.

Billy Wayne Perkins

JONESVILLE — Billy Wayne Perkins, 30, died Thursday in an accident at P & P Coal Co., St. Charles.

Originally of Harlan, Ky., he was a resident of the Jonesville area for 14 years. He was a member of the United Mine Workers of America, Local Union No. 1762, and a member of the Lenarue Baptist Church, Harlan.

Survivors include his wife, Janie Perkins, of the home; his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bill Perkins, Jonesville; two daughters, Tina Perkins and Shelley Perkins, of the home; one brother, Terry Wayne Perkins, of the home; and one sister, Phillis Perkins, of the home.

Province Funeral Home is in charge.

Danny Tester

WOODWAY, Va — Danny Tester died Thursday in an accident at P & P Co., St. Charles, Va.

He was a lifelong resident of Lee County, a member of the United Mine Workers of America, Local No. 1762, and was a Baptist.

Survivors include his wife, Becky Tester, of the home; two sons, Dale Lee Tester and Daniel Thaddeus Tester, of the home; one daughter, Cassandra Dawn Tester, of the home; seven brothers, Elwood Tester, McKeesport, Pa., Raymond Tester, St. Charles, Shelton Tester, Charles Tester, Richard Tester, Brackett Tester and William Tester all of Dayton, Ohio; three sisters, Ella Patterson, Nell Maddlesand Geraldine Floyd all of St. Charles.

Province Funeral Home is in charge.

Pauline Q. Riddle

ESSERVILLE, Va. — Pauline Q. Riddle, 55, died Tuesday morning following a brief illness.

She was a member of