

Fredericktown Miner Dies Of Injuries

Jack (Jacob) Shirey, 61, of Fredericktown, died Friday of injuries received at the Clyde No. 1 mine of the Republic Steel Corp., Fredericktown.

A timberman, Shirey suffered a broken neck when a beam fell on him. Frank Burkus, Jr., deputy coroner, said his death occurred immediately.

01-20-1956 Republic Steel Corporation,
Clyde mine news

Clipped By:
usmra_rob
Jul 8, 2024