

Sayreton Mine Worker Is Killed

A 59-year-old coal mine worker was killed yesterday in a rockfall at Sayreton Mine No. 2, of Republic Steel, company officials reported.

The victim of the slide was J. C. Faucett, of nearby rural Bradford.

A company spokesman said Faucett was a loading machine operator helper with 23 years service with the company.

He is survived by his wife and a 19-year-old daughter.
