

Lyon Mountain Cave-In Kills Father of Nine

LYON MOUNTAIN, N.Y. —
A father of nine, Robert M. Shutts, 38, a miner for Republic Steel Corp., was crushed to death in a mine 2,000 feet below the surface Tuesday.

Officials said the unexplained cave-in occurred at the 21st level at about 10 a.m.

Shutts was working alone and there were no witnesses.

His body was brought to the surface at noon.

The Bureau of Criminal Investigation were on the site investigating.

1965-04-06_Republic_Steel_Corporation_Chateaugay_Mine_NEWS