

OUT OF DEATH'S JAWS.

Entombed Miners in Pennsylvania Colliery Rescued.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 18.—(By Telegraph to The Times)—All the men entombed yesterday afternoon in the Shenandoah City colliery were rescued. Several were injured but none was seriously hurt. Twenty-two men were entombed by the explosion and it was only with the greatest difficulty that the imperiled men were safely rescued.

Shenandoah City Colliery rescue

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Fri, Dec 11, 2020