

FIVE MINERS RESCUED

Trapped When Gangway Falls Near Mount Carmel

Special to The Inquirer.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Oct. 21.—
After being entombed five hours, three miners, Adam Pazelski, Alex and Charles Keminsky, brothers, and two laborers, Toney Shulski and Peter Grady, were rescued today at the Sioux No.
3 Colliery.

They were working in the west seven-foot gangway when it caved in for a distance of 150 feet. Superintendent H. J. Heffner and other officials were present directing the rescue work. The men suffered only from shock.

Sioux No. 3 colliery cave-in

Clipped By:

usmra_rob
Sun, Dec 27, 2020