

FRANK P. GLASS IS GIVEN AN OVATION

Job-Rose Jewelry Co. Gives Away Handsome Silver Cuff Buttons.

As Frank P. Glass entered the dining room of the Shreve House last night Wednesday to join the literary club at its weekly luncheon, he was greeted with a rapturous ovation. Mr. Glass is said by some to be the only American ever appointed United States Senator.

GREEKS WANTED TO KNOW WHAT THE TROUBLE WAS

How three men walked through the city dump from the explosion in the action of the Shreve House last night Wednesday is the question that the Greeks at the time were trying to solve, according to last night's edition of the News.

Three men were walking in leading number 1 when the explosion occurred. The explosion extended from building 4 to 8, some time after the explosion the men, who were Greek, calmly walked out of the mine opening, and explored the reason for the crowd gathered.

Mr. Glass, who was wearing a dark suit, was the first to be seen. He was walking towards the mine opening, and was followed by two other men.
