

BOY KILLED BY MINE CAVE-IN

Pal Hall, Aged 12, of Cream City, is Victim.

Pal C. Hall, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gould Hall, near Cream City, on the Irondale road, was crushed to death in a cave-in today at 9:30 a. m., while he was digging coal for family consumption in a small mine near his home.

The mine, which extends three feet into the hill, had just been opened. Thomas Hall, brother of the victim, found the youth lying on his face and covered by the dirt, when he returned to the mine after taking a load of coal home.

Jefferson County Coroner Charles Wells of Steubenville will conduct an inquest.

The boy leaves his parents; three brothers, James, Thomas and Gould Jr., and four sisters, Johnnie Bee, Dorothy Lou, Wilma Jane and Lillian.
