

MINE RESCUER DIES.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 12.—E. E. Shumway, 51, president and general manager of the Rocky Mountain Fuel Company, is dead today the result of his inhaling poison gases while working with rescuers after the explosion of Dec. 17, in the Vulcan mine at Newcastle, Colo.

The Joliet Evening Herald News
January 12, 1914