
Entombed Miner Saved

POTTSVILLE, Feb. 15 (AP).—After being shut in behind a rush of coal at the Buck Run Colliery for twenty-four hours, John Drenosky, of Minersville, was rescued today uninjured and little the worse for his experience.

The Morning News
February 16, 1928