

Kentucky Mine Sealing Begins

PINEVILLE, KY.—(U.P.) —Work was to begin Wednesday on the sealing of the Kentucky Straight Creek Coal Co. mine near here where fires have been raging since an explosion Dec. 26.

At least 24 miners lost their lives in the mine disaster. Two miners died after being rescued, two bodies were recovered and 20 men are believed to be still in the mine.