
60 FEET OF ROCK TUNNELED TO RESCUE TRAPPED MINER.

Pottsville, Pa., July 22.—Joseph Kellert, a miner in No. 12 colliery of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, at Tamaqua, was rescued today after being entombed 32 hours. He was caught by a fall of top rock and was rescued uninjured after a 60-foot rock chute had been dug to him.

The Pittsburgh Press, July 23, 1916