

Mine Accident Victim Succumbs

By The Associated Press

MONTGOMERY — Ernest W. Workman, 56, of Longacre died in a hospital here to become the third victim of a Wednesday mine accident.

Two other men were killed instantly when coal rolled suddenly into a room of the Powellton No. 3 mine of Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates at Elkridge, Fayette County.

Funeral services for Howard Scott Cottrell, 26, of Elkridge, and Henry Howard, 52, of Eagle, who died in the accident, are to be held today.

A fourth man, C. E. Johnson, remains in critical condition in a hospital here.
