
LOST MINER FOUND.

Man, Imprisoned for Nine Days Without Food, Rescued.

By Associated Press.

LOGAN, W. Va., Feb. 14.—Lost in the lower levels of the Low Ash coal mine at Crown City, W. Va., without food for nine days, John Robinson, a Negro miner, was rescued yesterday. He was in a semi-conscious condition when found. Robinson went into the mine to repair a pump. His carbide lamp fell into a pool of water and being unfamiliar with the mine he wandered aimlessly in the dark.

The South Bend Tribune
February 14, 1925