
Entombed Miner Rescued

August Carucci, 30, of Mocanaqua was resting at his home yesterday after having been entombed in a cave in the mine of West End Coal Co. fourteen hours. Carucci was working in his chamber on Wednesday afternoon when extensive underground cave trapped him. Rescue squads were sent into the mine and early yesterday morning enough debris had been cleared to free the man.

The Wilkes-Barre Record, October 10, 1930