

The Titusville Morning Herald
October 3, 1871

Explosion in a Coal Mine

A dispatch says an explosion of sulphur occurred this afternoon in the Otto Colliery. Patrick McMichael, George Dunlap, Jacob Gast, and Thomas Hay were killed and George Bupee seriously injured. One miner is missing. There are no hopes of recovery.

NEW YORK HERALD
Tuesday, October 3, 1871

COLLIERY EXPLOSION
Sulphur Explosion in a Pennsylvania Mine -
Four Lives Lost

POTTSVILLE, Pa. October 2, 1871

A dispatch says an explosion of sulphur occurred this afternoon in the Otto Colliery. Patrick McMichael, George Dunlap, Jacob Yost, and Thomas Hays were killed and George Bupee seriously injured. One miner is missing. There are no hopes of recovering him.